Grand COSTA MAYA

ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES ALONG THE GRAND COSTA MAYA

CHACCHOBÉN

It is considered one of the biggest settlements of the area known as "Región de los Lagos" (Lakes region). Among the structures that stand out the most are the complexes known as the "Gran Basamento", "Las Vías" and "Grupo II", which include the tallest building.

📍 Located 70 km/44 mi away from Chetumal.

KOHUNLICH

A fascinating archaeological site due to its history, beauty and the natural wonders that surround it. "El Templo de los Mascarones" is nowadays the most emblematic structure of this site.

📍 Located 69 km/43 mi away from Chetumal.

DZIBANCHÉ

This is one of the largest and most important sites in the south of the Mexican Caribbean. Some of the most important constructions in the area are "El Templo de los Cormoranes", "El Templo de los Cautivos" and "El Templo de los Dinteles".

📍 Located 80 km/50 mi away from Chetumal.

KINICHNÁ

This site is distinguished by the construction of a monumental three-level Acropolis that has a series of low buildings around a square, which are believed to have functioned as platforms for smaller temples.

📍 Located 2 km/1 mi away from Dzibanché.

OXTANKAH

Besides the Mayan structures you can also observe a Spanish chapel that it is believed was built by the conqueror Alonso de Ávila in 1531. This mix between Mayan and Spanish vestiges is what makes this place unique.

📍 Located 16 km/10 mi away from Chetumal.
